Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University

Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University, located in Southern Japan, Beppu, Kyushu, is one of the top private international universities in Japan.

APU’s philosophy is to create a university campus that produces graduates with the skills they need to contribute to international society based on the fundamental principals of Freedom, Peace and Humanism, International Mutual Understanding, and the Future Shape of the Asia Pacific Region.

With almost half of the faculty and student body comprised of foreign nationals from all over the world, the University has achieved a truly international campus environment of cultural coexistence. This international learning environment reflects the commitment our students and staff have to deepening mutual understanding and overcoming differences in race, religion and culture.

Areas of Study:
College of Asia Pacific Studies (APS)
College of International Management (APM)

APU instruction is both English and Japanese.
